

“Villa Camilla, the ultimate aristocratic experience”

Villa Camilla, available for luxury holiday rental, is a splendid 19th century Villa, situated on the western shores of Lake Como.

It has remained exclusively in the hands of the same noble family, the Marchesi di Rozzano.

Villa Camilla is a symbol of Italian style and excellence and offers secure luxury living of the highest standard.

The Villa's interiors are of singular beauty: mosaic floors, turned wood staircases, statues and 18th century frescoes, as well as fine paintings from the late 1800's.

The 8 acres of private park surrounding Villa Camilla, was designed as an English garden in the mid 19th century and features age old trees of great beauty.

In this lovely green area there is also a small vegetable garden with a variety of fruit trees. Should they so wish, guests at the Villa may personally select the organic fruit and vegetables to be enjoyed in the many excellent dishes prepared by the chef at their service.

About five minutes' drive from the villa, take to the old-world charm of the oldest Golf Clubs in Europe, corners of "Old England" which epitomise the great tradition of a sport that is both noble and ancient.

And if riding is your passion, do not miss the expeditions on horseback that will allow you to discover marvelous views from an entirely different standpoint.

Villa Camilla is within easy access of some excellent ski resorts with St Moritz within 90 minutes' drive, making it an ideal location for both winter and summer.

10 bedrooms, 11 bathrooms out of which 3 with large Jacuzzi tub, fitness room, heated swimming pool, tennis court, private jetty and buoy on the lake, protected playground for children, private Chef, dedicated Guest Relation.
